

2018 MADRIGAL BARMEN AND WENCHES

There were a large number of people who auditioned to become a Madrigal Barmen or Wench this year, which made the audition process more competitive than ever. I was extremely impressed with the preparation you all put forth– it did not go unnoticed. I know many of you worked very hard, and I appreciate that very much. Unfortunately, due to a limited number of costumes, I could only accept a limited number of people. If you were not selected for a position this year, please consider re-auditioning next year.
